(1) That at all times pertinent hereto, the employer of Cathie Kempster, Plaintiff, was either Michigan Bell Telephone Company and/or AT & T Michigan, a Michigan corporation doing business with offices located in Saginaw County, Michigan (hereinafter Defendant Corporation).

(2) That at all times pertinent hereto, Defendant Tracy Bain was/is a resident of Saginaw County, and an employee of Defendant Corporation herein and a supervisor/boss over Cathie Kempster, Plaintiff.

(3) That at all times pertinent hereto, Defendant Rick Speice and/or Rick Speice, upon information and belief was/is a resident of Bay County, and an employee of Defendant Corporation herein and a supervisor/boss over Cathie Kempster, Plaintiff.

(5) That at all times pertinent hereto, Cathie Kempster, Plaintiff, was/is a resident of Saginaw County, and an employee with Defendant Corporation, with individual Defendants herein as her supervisors/bosses.

(6) That the unlawful discriminatory acts by Defendants herein occurred in Saginaw County, Michigan, making this Court a court of proper venue. See, for example, MCLA 37.1601 and MCLA 37.2801.

(7) That the monetary damages caused by Defendants' unlawful conduct far exceed One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars.

COUNT I
VIOLATION OF THE MICHIGAN PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES CIVIL RIGHTS ACT (ALL DEFENDANTS)

(8) That we repeat paragraphs 1-7.

(9) That Michigan has a civil rights act which protects people with "disabilities" as defined in the Persons with Disabilities Civil Rights Act (hereinafter "PWD CRA"), being MCLA 37.1101, et seq., such as Cathie Kempster, Plaintiff, from being discriminated against, harassed and/or retaliated against because of the disabilities defined in the aforesaid Act; and said law also prevents individuals and/or agents of employers, such as Defendants herein, from aiding and abetting one another, assisting and/or helping one another in accomplishing the unlawful conduct proscribed by said law.

(10) That Defendants herein violated the aforesaid PWDCRA, which violations included, but not by way of limitation, the following acts and/or omissions:

- (a) "Harassing" of Cathie Kempter, Plaintiff;
- (b) "Perceiving" and/or "regarding" Cathie Kempter, Plaintiff, as "disabled", and based on Defendants' wrongful perception, denying her work and/or employment opportunities;
- (c) Failing to "accommodate" Cathie Kempter, Plaintiff, if she was in fact disabled as Defendants claimed; and
- (d) Relying on her "history" to discriminate against her all of which violated Cathie Kempter's rights under MCLA 37.1101, et seq.

(11) That specifically, but not by way of limitation, Defendants herein--

- (a) Refused to honor doctor-imposed limitations/restrictions for Cathie Kempter, Plaintiff;

(13) That Defendants herein in fact fired Cathie Kempter, Plaintiff, in violation of MCLA 37.1101, et seq.

COUNT II
VIOLATION OF ELCRA (ALL DEFENDANTS)

- (16) That we repeat paragraphs 1-15.

- (18) That Defendants herein violated the aforesaid law, and Cathie Kempfer's rights under said law.
- (19) That specifically, but not by way of limitation, Defendants herein hired a man and gave him a job Cathie Kempfer could do, in violation of Defendants' own standard operating procedure regarding seniority, and contrary to entitlement to jobs under Michigan law as set forth in, for example, MCLA 37.1101, et seq.
- (20) That as a direct and proximate result thereof, Cathie Kempfer, Plaintiff, suffered the following injuries and damages:
 - (a) loss of her job;

(25) That Defendant Corporation violated the aforesaid law, which violations included, but not by way of limitation, the following acts and/or omissions:

- (a) "Harassing" of Cathie Kempfer, Plaintiff;
- (b) "Perceiving" and/or "regarding" Cathie Kempfer, Plaintiff, as "disabled", and based on Defendants' wrongful perception, denying her work and/or employment opportunities;

- The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.
- Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; In other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge.
- The EEOC issues the following determination: Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained establishes violations of the statutes. This does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.
- The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.

*Re: Cathie Kempster v. AT&T
Charge Number: 471-2010-03668*

Dear Mrs. Kempster:

This letter is being sent as a follow-up to our past conversations regarding this case and to provide you with an overview of the information and evidence compiled during the investigation of the above-referenced charge of discrimination. Based upon the information listed below, the EEOC has determined that the processing/investigation of this matter will be discontinued. This decision was made due to the fact that the information obtained during the investigation does not support a conclusion that the statute complained of has been violated.

On or about September 16, 2010, you filed a charge of discrimination in which you alleged that you were discriminated against on the basis of your disability. At the time of filing, you were apprized of the fact that the EEOC reserves the right and has the authority to discontinue processing of and terminate the investigation of your charge at any time. You now have the right to pursue this matter in court on your own behalf.

Further, a review of your case file has revealed the following:

1. As we previously spoke about, the information presented fails to indicate that you were discriminated against on the basis you allege in your charge. Based on the evidence presented it does not appear that you were suspended or discharged because of your disability. The evidence gathered tends to show that you were discharged due to accumulated short-term disability absences.

2. The Respondent has provided a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the actions it took.

It should be noted that the Dismissal and Notice of Rights which you receive relating to your charge will allow you to proceed with your allegations in federal court, if you so desire. UPON RECEIPT OF THE DISMISSAL AND NOTICE OF RIGHTS, IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU FILE SUIT IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WITHIN NINETY (90) DAYS OF RECEIPT. FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN YOUR LOSS OF RIGHT TO PROCEED IN COURT. An information sheet outlining your rights and filing procedures will accompany the Dismissal and Notice of Rights. Further, the EEOC

INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

*(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law.
If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits and other provisions of State law may be shorter or more limited than those described below.)*

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA):

In order to pursue this matter further, you must file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Therefore, you should keep a record of this date. Once this 90-day period is over, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and its envelope, and tell him or her the date you received it. Furthermore, in order to avoid any question that you did not act in a timely manner, it is prudent that your suit be filed within 90 days of the date this Notice was mailed to you (as indicated where the Notice is signed) or the date of the postmark, if later.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. (Usually, the appropriate State court is the general civil trial court.) Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. Filing this Notice is not enough. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Your suit may include any matter alleged in the charge or, to the extent permitted by court decisions, matters like or related to the matters alleged in the charge. Generally, suits are brought in the State where the alleged unlawful practice occurred, but in some cases can be brought where relevant employment records are kept, where the employment would have been, or where the respondent has its main office. If you have simple questions, you usually can get answers from the office of the clerk of the court where you are bringing suit, but do not expect that office to write your complaint or make legal strategy decisions for you.

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Equal Pay Act (EPA):

EPA suits must be filed in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment; back pay due for violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible. For example, if you were underpaid under the EPA for work performed from 7/1/08 to 12/1/08, you should file suit before 7/1/10 -- not 12/1/10 -- in order to recover unpaid wages due for July 2008. This time limit for filing an EPA suit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, suit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA back pay recovery period.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION -- Title VII, the ADA or GINA:

If you cannot afford or have been unable to obtain a lawyer to represent you, the U.S. District Court having jurisdiction in your case may, in limited circumstances, assist you in obtaining a lawyer. Requests for such assistance must be made to the U.S. District Court in the form and manner it requires (you should be prepared to explain in detail your efforts to retain an attorney). Requests should be made well before the end of the 90-day period mentioned above, because such requests do not relieve you of the requirement to bring suit within 90 days.

ATTORNEY REFERRAL AND EEOC ASSISTANCE -- All Statutes:

You may contact the EEOC representative shown on your Notice if you need help in finding a lawyer or if you have any questions about your legal rights, including advice on which U.S. District Court can hear your case. If you need to inspect or obtain a copy of information in EEOC's file on the charge, please request it promptly in writing and provide your charge number (as shown on your Notice). While EEOC destroys charge files after a certain time, all charge files are kept for at least 6 months after our last action on the case. Therefore, if you file suit and want to review the charge file, please make your review request within 6 months of this Notice. (Before filing suit, any request should be made within the next 90 days.)

IF YOU FILE SUIT, PLEASE SEND A COPY OF YOUR COURT COMPLAINT TO THIS OFFICE.

will provide you, upon request, with a list of attorneys who practice in the field of employment discrimination. Please note that the EEOC does not recommend the attorneys nor make any representation regarding their abilities.
